GERMANS AT VERDUN ARE HELD BACK

THEY SHIFT POINT OF ATTACK TO FRENCH
FLANK.

FOURTH ZEP CRIPPLED

OLD VETERAN OF BOER
ARMY EXECUTED
AT DUBLIN.

Heavy fighting has been resumed in the Verdun region with the Germans again on the offensive west of the Meuse. They have brought up a fresh division and apparently made a new concentration of heavy artillery. Instead of attacking Dead Man Hill, around which the battle has raged recently, they are now directing their attention to the somewhat higher eminence known as Hill 304, to the southwest, towards Avocourt, on the French left flank.

The afternoon bulletin of the Paris war office admits that an unusually violent bombardment compelled the French to evacuate part of their trenches on the northern slope of the hill. It declares, however, that German efforts to advance were checked by the fire of the French artillery and that the fresh troops the German crown prince threw into the fray suffered heavy losses. Attacks by the Germans north and northwest of Hill 304 were pushed so close to the French defenses that the bayonet had to be used to repel the assaults.

Yesterday's reports indicating the destruction of three Zeppelins are followed today by a dispatch from Dutch sources announcing that the Zeppelin L-9 had been signed flying low across the North sea, apparently badly crippled.

Executions of participants in the Irish rebellion are being continued, the eighth man to suffer the death penalty being Major John McBride, who fought through the Boer war against the British and afterward married Maud Gonne, widely known in connection with the Irish home rule agitation.

Norway has protested to the British and French governments against their action in seizing Norwegian mails. Similar protests have been made by the United States and Holland.

GERMAN ADVANCE CHECKED.

PARIS, May 6.—The French evacuated part of their trenches on the northern slope of Hill 304 on the Verdun front west of the Meuse, as the result of an unusually violent bombardment by heavy German guns. The war office statement of this afternoon says, however, that all efforts of the Germans to advance were checked by French guns and that a fresh division of troops which the Germans brought into action sustained great losses. Attacks north and northwest of Hill 304 were repulsed at the point of the bayonet.

DUBLIN, via London, May 6.—It was officially announced today that Major John McBride, the eighth leader of the Sinn Fein rebellion to suffer death by sentence of court-martial, has been shot.

Major John McBride fought throughout the Boer war with the Irish brigade under General Joubert. When the Boers finally surrendered he made his escape and took refuge in Paris, where he later married Miss Maud Gonne, known in home rule circles in Ireland as the Irish Joan D'Arc. In 1905, Major and Mrs. McBride delivered a series of lectures in the United States on Irish politics.

The sentences of Thomas Hunter and William Cosgrave who were sentenced to death with Major McBride were commuted to life imprisonment.

Joseph Plunkett, one of the leaders in the rebellion was married an hour before he was put to death, to Miss Giffard, sister of Mrs. Thomas Macdonagh, widow of one of the first rebels who was put to death after court-martial.

His right leg, collar-bone and a rib were broken and his chest was crushed. The speeder escaped.

MYSTERY ABOUT DEATH OF LEAR; RATS GNAW BODY

Woman Finds a Gruesome Sight in Rear of Her Residence.

DRINK GETS BLAME

South Side Residents Say
Police Are Guilty of Negligence.

Seated on a sack of onions and leaning against the Allen bakery just off South Main street, the body of Conrad N. Lear, 30, lately of Detroit, was found this morning by Mrs. Ralph Manhard, residing in the rear of 727 South Main street. The body of the man was removed to the Sifferd morgue just across the street. Following a post mortem examination held under the direction of Coroner Carlisle, with the assistance of Drs. E. G. Burton, E. H. Hay and J. R. Parry, the cause of the death was pronounced due to acute alcoholism and a complication of diseases.

One of the most pitiful features of the case was the manner in which the body of the man had been attacked by the army of rats that infest barns and other buildings in this vicinity. The left eye was entirely gone. A hole the size of a dollar had been gnawed through the right cheek and the left wrist had been eaten to the bone by the rodents. Since it is said that he was in almost an insensible intoxicated condition last night, Coroner Carlisle stated that it was possible the work of the rats might have been done before his death, however, it is more probable that this occurred after his death.

According to several of his sisters who reside on East Eureka street, he had been falling in health for some time. This resulted from an injury which he sustained while working in a factory in Detroit several years ago and which at times is said to have caused him to become mentally unbalanced. On several different occasions he has returned to his home in Lima from the Michigan city and has been unable to explain to his relatives how he made the journey. Since his arrival in this city from Detroit eight days ago, he had been staying at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Jackman of 158 East Eureka street.

The sister stated that when he arose yesterday morning he seemed to be in the best of spirits and worked in the garden at the rear of the home all morning. After eating his dinner he left the house but failed to come home for supper. Early in the evening he was seen by several persons standing at the corner of Kibby and Main streets.

About 7:30 o'clock last night W. M. Allen, proprietor of the bakery of that name at 723 South Main street, noticed a man seat himself on the steps of the bakery. Just before closing the store he saw it was Lear and that the latter was in an intoxicated condition. At this juncture he claims that Merchant Policemen Houtz and Patrolman Lawlor arrived on the scene Al-

At the same time Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that four Irish conspirators, including Patrick J. H. The Irish have been very much opposed to the policy of Birrell.

New Leviathan of the American Navy

The Oklahoma, 35,000 tons displacement, 580 feet long, is the new Leviathan of the American navy. She has just been commissioned and is ready. The vessel carries ten 14-inch guns like the New York, the Nevada and the Texas, thus making them the greatest battleships in the world with the exception of the five ships of the Queen Elizabeth type, built by Great Britain. They carry 18-inch guns. This photograph shows the vessel as she steamed into Philadelphia. Captain Roger Welles is commander of the vessel, and Lieutenant Commander Adolphus Andrews is the navigating officer.

STEAL JEWELRY IN DRUG STORE

TOLEDO, O., May 6.—The safe in the drug store at Archbold, Fulton county, was blown early this morning and $65, several watches and valuable rings were stolen. Two men, seen running from the store escaped. Three men, arrested near Maumee village this morning are held on suspicion.

AFFAIRS ARE SERIOUS AT SANTO DOMINGO

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Rear Admiral Caperton, in charge of the American forces at Santo Domingo, and Haiti, today advised the navy department that the situation in Santo Domingo in the revolt against President Jimenes was grave. Admiral Caperton did not report landing marines to guard the American legation. He said he had conferred with several Dominican officials. Secretary Daniels said that Admiral Caperton had full authority to land marines or to take any other steps necessary to preserve order.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, May 6.—Members of the Haitian senate, who persisting in holding a meeting in spite of the warning of Rear Admiral Caperton-in-command of the American forces here were dispersed today by a detachment of gendarmes commanded by an American officer. The senators protested but offered no resistance.

VILLISTAS STRUCK BY U. S. TROOPERS

Forty-two Mexicans Slain
in Camp Before Day-
break.

FIELD HEADQUARTERS NEAR NAMIQUEPA, by wireless to Columbus, N. M., May 6.—A full squadron of two hundred and thirty men of the eleventh cavalry surprised and routed a much larger force of Villistas at Ojo-Azul, 17 miles south of Cushtuticpac early yesterday.

Forty-two Mexicans were killed and a number wounded. There were no American casualties.

The American command, under Robert L. Howze, had been pursuing the bandits under Generals Cruz Dominguez and Julio Acosta, for several days when they encountered them encamped in the huddled adobe huts of Ojo-Azul.

The Mexicans were completely surprised and sprang from their pallets half clothed. After firing a few wild shots they began a flight, each man striving for his own safety. Some of them were able to seize their horses, already jaded from a hard day's ride previously, but others made their way into the hills afoot.

A PLEASANT TIME WAS HAD BY ALL, EXCEPT GOVERNOR

Lima Republicans Enjoy a Merry Jaunt to Bluffton to
"Hear Mr. Willis."

Dramatic Scenes Enacted as Local Party Falls to
On the Food.

Willis didn't get there, but it was a merry trip just the same, from a Democratic viewpoint, at least.

Only a movie scenario writer or a ringside specialist could do the story justice. Others must fall for lack of imagination. Picture the following:

At four o'clock yesterday John Cable's personally-conducted excursion to Bluffton to hear the rotund governor assembled at the Western Ohio station. Gale and Methany weren't there, and Heffner also failed to show up. The whereabouts of Light much in the dark. Filled with dismay, the leaders were about to call off the trip, but Mayor Simpson arrived and informed the boys that it would be all right if they went to Bluffton without the missing members.

No sooner had the car passed beyond the city limits than some bright member of the group in the smoking compartment called for a straw vote on the presidency, believing that the party would jam Wilson into the background. Ira J. Robbins volunteered to pass the slips and loan his hat. He made the mistake, however, or including the entire car, and the result stood: Wilson 8, Roosevelt 7, Burton 7, Hughes 2, Willis, Harding, Bryan, Root, Hank Ford and Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania, one each. Announcing the result Robbins stated that there were 31 votes, including 21 republicans, 9 democrats and one Bryanite. No comments were made on the ability of the G. O. P. to unite on a candidate.

Party arrives at Bluffton. A few members forget that the village is dry and search for a thirst parlor. Dick Cunningham passes and invites a few Lima visitors to see the town in his Studebaker. Finally locates it—the car, not the town "We are now entering the campus of Bluffton college."

On reaching the brain factory the party is ushered into an attractive building. On learning that it is a girls' dormitory Mack Ashton immediately looks for a hook on which to hang his coat and hat. Camera man lines up the college and the visitors for a panoramic view. Girls in front, republicans bringing up the rear. Gus Kaib tries to hide behind Carl Rowlands. Camera turns around to look at the group. Dignified poses prevail.

Loud noises from Bluffton College Republican club. Investigation proves that it is the college yell, running something like this:

Raw, raw, raw!

Raw, raw, raw!

Raw, raw, raw!

OYSTERS!

Now comes the truth of the Willis absence. The governor has sent Lawrence K. Langdon of the public utilities commission to represent him. Two professors line up the party for a triumphant entrance to the food room. Line of march is as follows:

Professors.

Lawrence K. Langdon.

John L. Cable.

Lima visitors in bunches of one or more.

DIPLOMATIC BREAK NOT NOW FEARED

WASHINGTON THINKS
NOTE HAS MET
DEMANDS.

HOLLAND SEES PEACE

ASSERTS THAT MOVE
FOR COMPROMISE
IS VISIBLE.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The official text of Germany's note fully decoded and laid before President Wilson today shows no material differences from the unofficial text published yesterday in news dispatches. This strengthens the probability that a diplomatic break has been averted, at least for the present.

While it was indicated today that President Wilson would make no further peace move until the allied governments have signified their willingness to receive suggestions on the subject, some officials thought today the German note might possibly draw something from the allies.

Overnight study of the note by cabinet members and officials did not change their view that probably there would be no break in diplomatic relations unless there were further attacks in violation of international law.

There is a possibility that the United States may make a brief reply notifying the Berlin government that as long as the new order to submarine commanders are fully observed diplomatic relations will not be discontinued on that score.

Secretary Lansing already has studied the note once and was going over it very carefully again today. There were indications that further consideration by the cabinet would not be necessary.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, returned to the embassy today from New York. He said he had no communication from his government and had no reason to visit the state department in connection with the note unless he were invited or instructed by his government to do so. The embassy view that the note was all the United States asked remained unchanged.

President Wilson read today with careful attention the portion of the note touching on peace. Some officials believed unusual significance should be attached to that part of the note because it was taken to indicate officially that recent speeches of Chancellor Von Bethman-Hollweg before the reichstag were intended as notices to the world that Germany was ready for peace on certain terms.

The note says the "German government conscious of Germany's strength twice within the last few months announced before the world its readiness to make peace on a basis of safeguarding Germany's vital interests, thus indicating it is not Germany's fault if peace is still withheld from the nations of Europe."

GERMAN PEACE MOVE SEEN

Belief Persists That Note Has Definite Purpose Behind It.

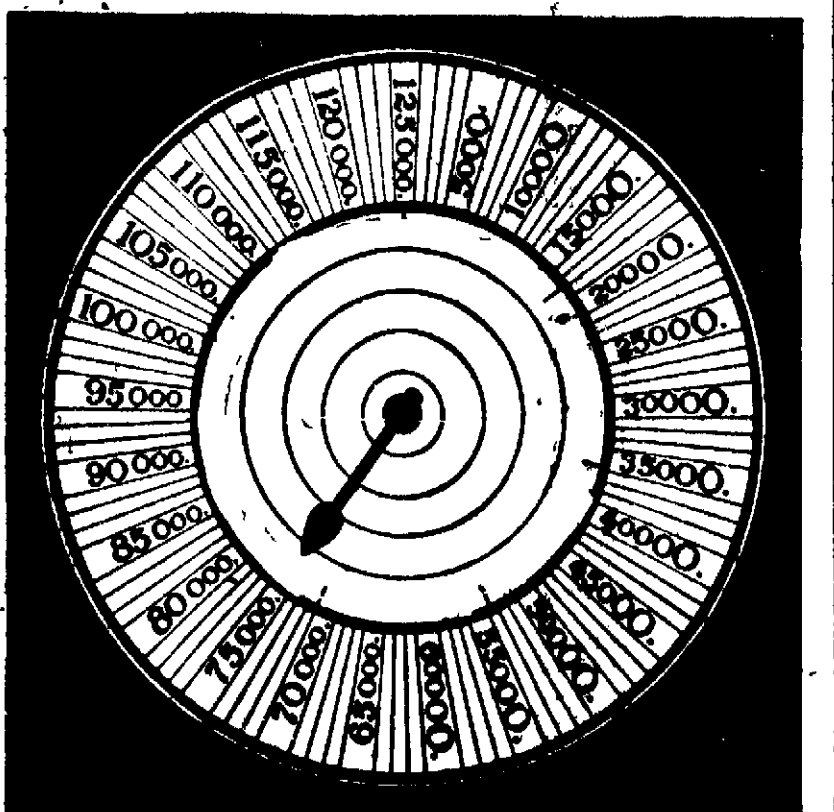

LONDON, May 6.—The Daily News gives a prominent place in today's issue to a long despatch from Rotterdam asserting that there is a strong belief in Holland that the German note to the United States was carefully prepared in the hope that it may lead eventually to peace negotiations. The despatch says in part:

"There is a belief here that behind the whole cloud of vague and conditional promises lies the hope opened with England through the United States. According to this view, Germany hopes that Washington will open a discussion first on questions of contraband and the naval blockade which will widen by easy stages to eventual discussion of possible peace conditions."

"In American circles in Berlin, it is believed that Ambassador Gerard, during his recent visit to the Kaiser's headquarters at the front, discussed matters far wider in range than merely the question at issue between Washington and Berlin."

The Daily News correspondent also says that the Wolf Bureau sent out an article this week in which an anonymous neutral discusses the relations between Germany and the United States and suggests that America now has an opportunity to lay the foundations for peace negotiations. This article appeared in the same issue of the German newspaper.

Y.M.C.A. CAMPAIGN $125,000 BY MAY 10TH 1916

WATCH THE CLOCK

Report with the text of the reply to the American note.

BERLIN, May 6.—The utter lack of excitement on the part of the majority of the people of Berlin with which publication of the German note to the United States was received in strong contrast with the great interest shown everywhere when the American note to Germany was published April 21. After the first flurry at noon today when extra editions of the newspapers appeared with the text of the note the city resumed its usual calm. In fact it was almost a dead calm on account of the blistering heat. News dealers who had ordered especially large supplies of papers could not get rid of them, for the public simply refused to buy them or be burdened by reading. Throughout the afternoon restless crowds of aviators also thronged the principal streets and cafes. Not the person in fifty, so far as could be seen, glanced at a newspaper or heeded shouts of the dealers. Nowhere could there be heard any particular discussion of the German-American situation nor were there signs of the antipathy to persons speaking English which frequently have been observable.

Lear states that he told the two officers that something should be done for the man. He claims that after they had promised to take care of him, he left the store without further notice.

Persons residing in the vicinity of the bakery state that when last seen the two officers were talking with Lear. Just who was instrumental in carrying him to the rear of the bakery is not known. It is alleged that several friends of Lear carried him in his helpless condition to the rear upon the advice of the officers. Physicians who conducted the examination this morning are of the opinion, that, if he had been removed to a suitable place where medical attention could have been given him, his life might have been saved.

Mrs. Ralph Manhard, rear of 737 South Main street was the first to discover the body in a sitting position this morning, when she looked out of the front window of her home just before calling her husband at 5:30 o'clock. The husband went out to investigate, and seeing the condition of the body, immediately notified Siferd, the undertaker across the way.

Mrs. J. L. Thomas, a neighbor of the Manhards asked one of her brothers to call the police department. They claim that they did not obtain any satisfaction from them until a half hour later, when some one called up and asked what the trouble was, but on being informed that the body was in the morgue, the person rang off without disclosing his identity. Three men were seen in the rear of the Thomas home last night between 8:30 and 9 o'clock, but their identity was not established. No patrolman visited the scene of the death of Lear until the change of beats this morning, which was some time after the affair had been reported.

Eppelstein, Rudolph Rosenberg and Solomon Klein, partners, doing business as Eppelstein, Rosenberg and Klein, against Youngheart, Miller company, the judgment of the justice of peace was affirmed and the costs remanded for execution.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS ARE TO ENTERTAIN

Invitations were sent out this morning to 325 Knights Templars to attend an entertainment Tuesday evening, May 16, at Masonic temple. Shawnee commandery will on that evening hold open house for all members of the body and ladies, with each sir knight in full regalia. The schedule of events follows: 6:00 p. m., reception by officers; 6:30, dinner in the clubrooms; 8:30 entertainment; 9:00, dancing and cards.

AUGLAIZE COUNTY MAN FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

Bernelda Hamilton, a former inmate of the Allen county children's home and a ward of the Allen county juvenile court, is complainant in a case entitled the state of Ohio against Aaron Harris of near Kossuth, Auglaize county. Harris is charged with having mistreated the girl.

The case was investigated by Allen county probation officers and it is found that on April 10 the girl became 16 years of age. This takes her out of the minor class and does not make the offense so grave, as it is said to have occurred since that time.

When arraigned before a justice of the peace Harris pleaded guilty. He was placed under bond in the sum of $1,500, which he was unable to furnish, and is now in jail at Wapakoneta.

'RELIGION' NOTED AS REASON FOR DIVORCE

Difference in religion was at the bottom of the trouble in the divorce case of Grace Hugel against William Hugel, for at the bottom of the page on which this case was docketed, after the decree was granted today, Judge Klinger wrote, "Religion." Service was by publication. The defendant has been absent three years, on which grounds the decree was given. Mrs. Hugel will pay the costs.

Judge Klinger announced his decision in the divorce case of Emma against Richard E. Railing, heard on Tuesday in court. The wife was given the decree, but the husband must pay the court costs. Gross neglect of duty was the grounds upon which the decree was granted. The wife is given the custody of the children, but the husband has the privilege of visiting them. He must also pay $12 a month for their support.

MONTH OLD INFANT LEFT ON DOORSTEP

Awakened by the cries of an infant Mrs. Alvina Spencer of 584 South West street went to the porch of her home this morning at 3 o'clock only to find that the walls came from a tiny bundle placed at the top step of the porch. The little boy is about a month old, but no means of identification have been found. He was warmly wrapped in a couple of blankets, but was evidently not any too comfortable, judging from the hushness of his voice. Mrs. Nettie Miller was at once notified and the child is now at the city hospital waiting for some kind person to adopt it.

DOMESTIC TROUBLE COMES IN COURT

Three divorce cases were filed in succession in common pleas court.

Albert C. Winegardner, city fireman, asked for divorce from Beatie I. Winegardner, to whom he was married of January 23, 1902, in Allen county. They have two children, Weldon Winegardner, 11, and Evelyn Winegardner, 8 years of age.

He says he is absent from home, performing his duties, every night in the week, excepting one, and an hour a day for each meal. The petition alleges she has permitted men callers and says she left their home and the city of Lima upon diverse occasions with one Harry Riley, remaining from three to five days. He says this condition of affairs has existed since 1912.

Winegardner says he was forced to cook his own meals, that she neglected her household duties and is extravagant, so that he is unable to live on his salary of $75 a month. He asked for and was granted an injunction, preventing her from removing their household goods from their home at 598 Harrison avenue, which he asks to be permanently given to him, as well as the custody of the children.

Mabel I. Schlick late yesterday afternoon filed action in court for divorce from Otto A. Schlick, city fireman, of 1139 East High street, to whom she was married in Lima on March 19, 1912. They have no children.

She asks he has refused and neglected to provide for her; instead spending his money in gambling and keeping race horses. The wife also charges abuse and that he assaulted her and cursed and swore at her. Alimony and the restoration to her maiden name of Mabel I. Slygh is asked.

Mrs. Josephine Vaughn sued for divorce from Albert A. Vaughn, to whom she was married in Troy on June 3, 1896. They have one son, Marlie Vaughn, 18 years old.

Gross neglect of duty and failure to provide for the past three years, is alleged. She says she has been compelled to earn her own living, although he is well able to do so.

She says he called her vile and profane names and threatened to do her bodily injury and on several occasions assaulted her.

She asks his dower in her property at 512 Nye street be barred and was granted an injunction, preventing Vaughn from interfering with her or the child.

THE IDLER

Under the direction of City Trust Officer Spurrier, the school census of the city of Lima may be taken by the seventh and eighth grade pupils. They will be assigned blocks near the building where they attend school.

Local police were informed by officials of Ottawa last night to watch for three negroes and a white man, who are said to have thrown a white man from the train near that city, after robbing him of $15. No trace of the men was found although all trains passing through the city were searched.

Peter Bohanski of 121 West First street, arrested yesterday on a charge of assault on Ami Montague, pleaded not guilty to the charge when arraigned in the court of Justice of the Peace Hamilton and was placed under $100 bond for his appearance in court this afternoon.

A special program is being planned at the First Christian church for Mothers' day on Sunday, May 14. The entire auditorium will be reserved for mothers who will attend. The object is to bring in many mothers who have not been to church recently to enjoy the beautiful service of the day.

before in his life, and announced that he was glad to do it. The latter urged increased activity and persistence on the part of the solicitors during the remaining three days, in which $50,000 is to be raised. It became known during the reading of the report of the general staff that the executive committee is relying on a number of probable donors who are expected to contribute heavily on the last lap. Their names were not made known, but it is understood that arrangements have been made for several donations not exceeded in size by any save the six original subscriptions.

PIGMA'S PROGRESS IN MOVIES, CHURCH

Congregationalists Offer Series of Popular Sunday Night Services.

An innovation in popular service is announced at the Congregational church, South Elizabeth street. Beginning Sunday and continuing for three Sunday nights a series of sermons on "Pigma's Progress," illustrated by motion picture films, has been arranged.

This has been called the greatest book by man. It was written by John Bunyan while in prison. As in a dream he sees the Christian on the pilgrimage of life on the way to the Heavenly city. He fights the heads of hell, passes through the sloughs of despondency, and the valley of death, a desolate place filled with hideous phantoms and evil spirits. He fearlessly follows the right path, and after the most extraordinary circumstances, enters the gates of the city of holiness and lasting happiness.

Short sermons based upon the pictures will be preached by the pastor, the Rev. Charles S. Bucher. Admission is free and all are invited.

Cut This Out—It Is Worth Money DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c to Foley & Co., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for bronchial coughs, colds, and croup, Foley's Kidney Pills, and Foley's Cathartic Tablets. W. F. GERMAN MOB RAIDS PROVISION SHOPS

Charlottenburg Citizens Angered by Butchers' Practices, Riot.

BERLIN, May 6.—(via London)—A mob in Charlottenburg last night swept through the streets, plundering two butter shops, and smashing signs and windows of a number of other butter shops and meat shops, including the municipal meat markets.

The rioting, which was soon ended, was due chiefly to indignation aroused in the last few days by the discovery that a number of butchers were withholding from sale meat delivered them by the city for sale to the poorer people holding meat cards, or had sold it privately at prices exceeding the official maximum.

No small part of the indignation was probably due to the insolent treatment of purchasers by clerks, especially in butter and meat shops. The police have begun a series of investigations of butcher shops and already have arrested a number of butchers, who, instead of selling pork delivered to them, were salting, smoking or making sausages from it, and reserving it for future sale, as the maximum prices for these goods are much higher than for fresh pork.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bedwetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

YOU MEN WHO WERE COUNTRY BOYS

and came to town remember how hard it was to stand the nights. Hall bedrooms aren't very cheerful in the lamp-glow. You wanted company, amusement, anything to break the awful loneliness and monotony. YOU came through safe, YOU had the moral, mental and physical strength to survive. Perhaps you met the right girl in time, but THINK BACK and recall some of the boys who were your friends then—WHO GOT IN WRONG AND WHO CAME OUT RIGHT. What would it have meant for YOU in those days to have had a reading room, a gymnasium, a swimming pool, night educational classes, lectures and talks by men who had traveled and who had achieved? What would it have meant to the boys who DIDN'T succeed, who MIGHT have been helped to HELP THEMSELVES—to keep clean minds and sound bodies? Boys are STILL coming from the country NIGHTS must still be passed. AMBITION IS STILL STRONG in the big teens and little twenties. Don't you think that you ought to help dig the "safe thoroughfare." The Y. M. C. A. has OUTGROWN ITS FINANCES just because it HASN'T outgrown its USEFULNESS. Those INSIDE its doors aren't one, two, three to the number WAITING ON THE STEPS. It needs money for American manhood, to keep clean cleanliness in youth, to broaden brains and backs. It needs some of YOUR money—as much as you can afford to give. It needs it badly—NOW.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

IS IT RHEUMATISM?

Aren't You Really On the Wrong Track?

A good share of so-called rheumatism is caused by weak kidneys. When the kidneys fail to clear the blood of uric acid, the acid irritates the delicate nerves. Torturing pains dart through the affected part whenever it is moved. By strengthening the kidneys, Doan's Kidney Pills have proven their worth in thousands of so-called rheumatic cases, lumbago, sciatica, gravel, and urinary disorders. Doan's are well-known in Lima and warmly recommended by Lima people. Read this Lima case:

Mrs. W. Wyatt, 232 West Vine street, Lima, says: "I was taken down with lumbago. I couldn't get about and had to go to bed for a couple of days. The passages of the kidney secretions were too frequent and scanty. Rheumatic pains all over my body bothered me. I took a box and a half of Doan's Kidney Pills and they helped me wonderfully."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wyatt had. Foster-Villburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

BIG NEW CIRCUS IS MUCH DIFFERENT

Wheeler Bros. Well Known Show, Makes First Tour in This Section.

No glittering generalities are used in announcing the coming of Wheeler Bros. shows due to reach Lima, Thursday, May 18, for not only an itemized parade list is published, showing what the on-lookers are invited to see, but in every notice this show mentions real facts; what is to be given in the circus program. This is quite an innovation in sawdust publicity, and that it is a wise move must be profitable, as these circus owners are quoted high up in the financial realm.

It is an old show, at that, for many years favorably known in the east and south as "the ladies and children's circus," and where it has gained a high standing as the cleanest and highest grade canvas exhibition ever seen in that territory.

It is a brand new three-ring show in this section of the country, but desirous of extending its tours and opening up new fields, it has decided to appear here for further public approval, sure and certain to gain new friends in these parts, for if the management was afraid of its reception or of not sufficient merit to appeal to a strange public, it would not waste the money in a vain endeavor to promote new lands.

He is building the bridge. Reinforcing work has been completed.

GERMANY'S NOTE
For Bethmann-Hollweg to reiterate his promises made after the Ancona attack, promises the breach of which in the Sussex case led to our last protest against violations of international law, is hardly a satisfactory rejoinder to President Wilson's ultimatum of a fortnight ago. It may be a reply, but it is certainly not an answer.

The imperial government is skillful in hedging and deft in delaying the crisis, but as the elasticity of American patience is not infinite there must somewhere be a limit. As a nation the United States is tolerant, but not without a boiling point. Germany's dexterity in evading will sooner or later be useless, for while we can take a good deal we cannot take everything, and Berlin would probably use more tact and sincerity if this were known in Wilhelmstrasse.

We do not want any more promises—of those we already have enough. What we want is observation of the pledges obtained under pressure in previous communications. The foreign office of the Hohenzollerns has staked the honor of the German empire on those agreements, and failure to fulfill them cannot avert a severance of diplomatic relations.

Whether or not the administration accepts once more the German offers of good faith and protestations of friendship will not be decided in Washington, but in Berlin. Mr. Wilson has obtained about all their is in diplomacy—reiterated pledges. It is a cessation of violations which we demanded two weeks ago, and there is little reason to doubt that one more disaster, in the face of the recent repetition of the Ancona promises, will mean a breach.

The United States is not hankering for war, but we will not run from it. The future relations between Washington and Berlin depend on the sincerity and conduct of the latter. The situation is that of two men almost on the point of breaking off acquaintance after a card dispute in a club. They may refuse to speak to one another, but a blow from one will bring the other into hostilities. Unless Germany delivers that blow we can ignore her. If she does start a scrap, we believe that this nation will finish it.

A BIGGER ARMY
The New York World, paragon of enterprise and sense of reliability, has just inaugurated a poll of the press of the United States relative to the increase of the federal army. Telegrams from owners, editors and publishers are printed day after day as evidence of the claims made by the Pulitzer publication, and in response to the first day's crop of the replies are as follows:

In favor of an army of 250,000 men, 83.
For an army of 180,000 men, 21.
Non-committal, 16.

With this as a criterion there can be little doubt that the sentiment of the nation is for increased armament. Whether or not the press is a true representative of popular opinion has long been a debated question, but it is certain that editorial comment directly antagonistic to the spirit of the times will ultimately reduce circulation, and most publishers realize that fact. Hence it is safe to assume that in the present crisis, with public interest in governmental affairs at a high pitch, the trend of current thought is for preparedness. Further evidence is to be found in the fact that the papers strongest for adequate national defense are those which have grown most during the past two years, and many of them have the greatest number of readers in their respective spheres.

It is common to hear the peace-at-any-price advocates urge those of more manly proclivities to go to Europe to do the fighting, but few

NEW MOVIELAND
By DAISY DEAN

EDNA GODDRICH, equally popular among patrons of the stage and screen, has joined the long procession of famous stars who have deserted the stage indefinitely for the silent drama. Miss Goddrich to date has appeared in but one photoplay, "Armstrong's Wife," and that was released last year. Now it is announced that she will give all her time to moving pictures and is already at work for the Morosco company at Los Angeles.

Edna Goddrich

The subject in which Miss Goddrich will make her debut as a Morosco star is entitled "The Tangle," an adaptation from the play, "The Making of Magdalena," by Mary and Samuel Lewis, in which Mary Emerson originally starred with great success. Supporting her in this play are Forrest Stanley and Howard Davies. "The Tangle" will be released early next month.

The Desert Lures Gladys Brockwell. Gladys Brockwell, leading woman in a big western picture now being made for William Fox, has had her first taste of the great waste, the west which offers its mighty deserts, sage brush, coyotes, mountains and stars and she is a convert. "For," says Miss Brockwell, "there is no life so free as that of out-doors. Give me a pony, supplies and a compass and I'll warrant I could pass a month on the Mojave desert with never a regret. I have often heard of the prospectors who spent their lives on the deserts and in the mountains and the stories of their love for their surroundings always seemed far fetched and exaggerated to me. But now I know it was the truth I heard. There is a lure to the desert in its awful mystery, and a certain comfort in the stars. It is a wonderful life, out of doors, and I'm mighty glad 'The Honor System' called us to the desert. I can hardly wait to return."

This Paragraph is for Women. Blanche Sweet believes in preparedness for women and shows her military tendencies in the black brocade suit she is wearing. The tailored skirt hangs in straight lines for the waistline and is longer than skirts are generally being worn this season. The jacket is straight and short. It boasts no collar and its only visible means of support are two bands of the material about two inches in width which cross over a dainty lingerie blouse and fasten on opposite sides half way down the front. The narrow sleeves are softened by their length, which shows just a glimpse of white cuff. A material hat and a pair of white kid gloves and an English walking stick put the finishing touches to this costume.

Helen Holmes is mourning the death of her father, who for a number of years was traffic manager of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad.

TRAVELETTE
BY NIKSAH.

CHILLON.
The prison of Chillon is a monument to the value of advertising. Considered as a prison, it has little claim to greatness. There are dungeons far better arranged from a sanitary and esthetic point of view, if you are looking for high-class dungeons. On the other hand, there are dungeons far worse and more inhuman, if you wish to revel in thrills of horror and pity. Chillon owes its world-reputation to the activities of Lord Byron, who wrote the "Prisoner of Chillon" and thereby secured the fame of Chillon for all time. Chillon is very accessible, thanks to the Swiss policy of putting no unnecessary obstacles in the way of the sightseer. It is nearly an ideal "sight." All the elements of interest are present, conveniently arranged and properly balanced. There is the mountain lake, clear as a mirror and fair as a jewel. There are the quaint cottages and the graceful villas about the banks, standing apparently on the up-turned ends of their own perfect reflections. There is the dark forest staring moodily at its own dark image in the quiet water. To make all complete, you have the ancient historic dungeon.

home of romance and subject of deathless verse. It is no wonder that it takes a war to make us see America first.

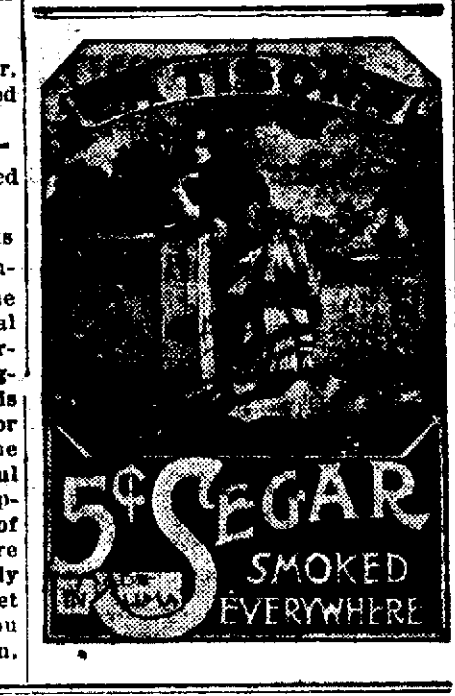

The dungeon itself nowadays is a graceful bit of architecture, more like a church than a prison, with its cool, gloomy interior arched and pillared after the best traditions of the builder's art. In the time when it was operating actively as a dungeon, however, this open space was divided up into little cells, and the graceful pillars were used to anchor the business end of a chain; all of which contributed largely toward efficiency but very little to the comfort of the inmates.

In spite of all that has been said and written to wear the subject of the old-time prison threadbare, you cannot suppress a little thrill of pity and horror when you see the hollows worn into living rock by the feet of some unfortunate, pacing up and down helpless and hopeless through the years and the decades. In spite of 42-centimeter guns and submarines and poison gases, you feel that it is sagacious to be born in the twentieth century.

The Searchlight

MOVING A HOUSE ABOVE TRE ETOPS.

An old farm house in Loretto, Pennsylvania, was recently raised 34 feet up in the air to move it over the tops of 25 trees surrounding it. The old building is nearly 50 years old but in such firm solid condition its owners would not have it demolished. It is to be used as an overseer's residence nearly half a mile from its former location. A house costing a million dollars is to be built upon the site of the old one. Its owner chose this location in order that his home might be surrounded by the trees, some of which are many years old. They were too close together to permit the house being taken out between them so he spent several hundred dollars upon the erection of jacks high enough to raise the house over them without injury to their tops.

HEALTHHINTS
INFECTION FROM THE TEETH MAY CAUSE DEATH

Too many people dig their graves with their teeth. Evidence has accumulated rapidly in recent years to show that the proper care of the teeth is an important factor in general hygiene. Everybody knows that the decay of one's teeth, if not promptly checked, leads to untold suffering and nervous strain, and places an undue work on the digestive organs as a result of improper chewing of one's food.

It is clear that in addition to these obvious dangers, decayed teeth and infected gums furnish the easiest way into our systems for disease germs.

Numbers of unexplained cases of disease are believed to be caused by mouth and tooth infections.

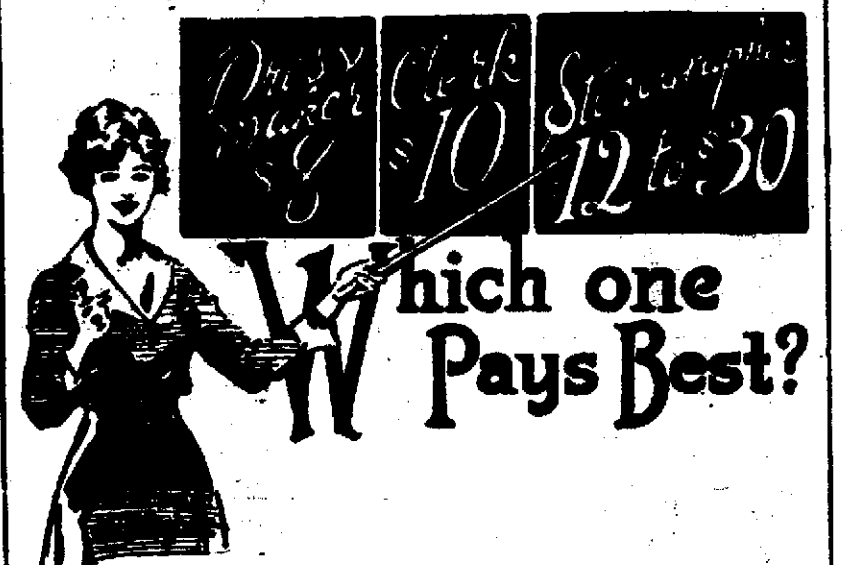

Sometimes these infections are the real cause of rheumatism. Sometimes they cause serious heart, arterial and kidney diseases. Sometimes, and not infrequently, they cause death!

Which one Pays Best?
Which one is paid the best? The untrained woman with just an ordinary education or the trained woman with a Commercial schooling. The answer is apparent. The business college woman is in demand—she draws a large salary, her position is more desirable and permanent. A course in stenography in this school pays an extra big dividend on the investment.

In April we received 62 calls for graduates. The larger number of these positions ranged from $50.00 to $60.00 a month—excellent salaries for beginners. But here is a significant fact that should interest the young people of Lima: 32 of these places went unfilled. Trained students are scarce. Far too many young people are willing to start on their life's work untrained, and consequently accept a small salary.

Our students succeed because they are trained by business methods. Business men know they are thorough and reliable. Summer sessions now commencing.

GREAT MEN COMMEND WORK OF THE Y.M.C.A.

Wm. Phillips
Team Captain

W. E. Freely

It will be interesting to note what some of our national leaders have said about the value of the Young Men's Christian Association. These men at the head of affairs recognize very highly the necessity of the conservation of the manhood of our country, and they are keenly alive to every agency that is working to that end, and their words have the weight of their position as leaders of the nation and men of affairs.

President Wilson, when laying the corner stone of the Y. M. C. A. at Atlantic City, New Jersey, said among other things:

"No man organized the Y. M. C. A. for his own benefit. No man ever expected, if he were a true man, that he would reap even a spiritual benefit from it. The vitalizing force of this great association is that men forget themselves and try to serve others. We have been taught through its instrumentality that it is the duty of all men to work for the common good, to put our moral assets into one common investment and to obtain that most beautiful of all usury, the common elevation of mankind."

"You can test the modern community by the degree of its interest in the Y. M. C. A. I say that advisedly, and not to contrast the Y. M. C. A. with any of the great churches, which hold out Christian loyalty. But unfortunately those churches do not unite us and there is a common benefit we get from all of them through the Y. M. C. A. There is something a little alarming to realize that we are more moral when united than when separated."

Congressman Oscar Underwood, democratic house leader, when laying the corner stone of the new Birmingham, Ala. Y. M. C. A. said:

"This association is engaged in a business enterprise as much as any of the banks, furnaces or factories."

of this district. The finished product of this factory will be men of character, dependable, honest, truthful and loyal who build cities, govern states and save humanity from itself."

President Brown, of the New York Central Lines, stated that the best insurance he has found for guaranteeing the efficient handling of a railroad and the safety of a traveling public is the Y. M. C. A. "I supposed that I knew something of the length and breadth and scope of the work of the Young Men's Christian Association, but on hearing its latest reports I find I had no conception whatever of its work. No man may learn of these far-reaching activities without having a deeper and more abiding faith in the association and the future of this country. I do not believe that any money that a railroad can appropriate for any purposes pay so large a return for the amount invested as those made for the establishment of railroad branches. The human equation more than automatic appliances is the determining factor in railroad operation. I have doubt if there is any other insurance possible for having the man on the engine, the man at the switch, the man at the telegraph key and the man at the signal in the best shape possible for performing the duties that devolve upon him, which can compare with that afforded him by the Young Men's Christian Association Railroad Department. The Association, with its quiet rooms, its wholesome meals, its baths, its libraries and gymnasiums offers a substitute for hotels with saloon attachments for a place to eat and sleep—a place where every influence is elevating and the surroundings are calculated to make them better as well as more efficient employees."

There is a merchant in this city that will not do the right thing by the public. The people should help by keeping their money in Lima."

A USEFUL MEMBER OF SOCIETY

"I have found out that you can't be a useful member of society without a telephone," said Mrs. Montgomery.

"For instance. I am very much interested in my church, and I think that everybody ought to do a certain amount of church work."

"We have been re-decorating our church, and they made me the secretary of the Decorating Committee. Up to that time I had been one of those people who imagine they save money by doing without a telephone."

"And right away my troubles started. Now-a-days people expect to attend to their affairs by 'phone. I found it was a physical impossibility to get my committee together without calling them up."

"I tried sending them notices by mail, and that did not work at all. And of course it was out of the question to try and see them personally. So in desperation I was compelled to use my neighbor's 'phone, next door."

"People are very kind about letting others use their 'phone, but it certainly is an imposition. And then it looks pretty queer not to have a 'phone in the house."

"So I saw that if I wanted to be in things, I would have to get a 'phone put in."

"And when I think how much service the telephone company gives me for five cents a day, I think it is the biggest bargain I ever got."

The Week In Society

MARIE N. NAGEL

"MERRILY, Merrily, do I live now,
Under the blossom that hangs on the bough,"
sings the pretty society woman, and business
woman, and country lass, all in the same breath. For spring belongs to no one, but to every one. All things take a new lease on life, and the society belle begins to plan her summer conquests at the lake or sea shore just as she plans her summer wardrobe. The society woman begins to think about the links, and pulls out her golf sticks and tries them out, to the danger of everyone and everything within a mile of her. Tennis rackets are being re-strung, and motor enthusiasts are dreaming of glorious days and good roads. Clubs are beginning to stop their meetings until next fall, and missionary societies are beginning to think of taking a much-needed rest
from their helping endeavors. But the summer dance is with us to stay. Alas, for summer weddings, they seem to have been crowded out, or afraid because it's leap year.
Probably the last of the really important things for some time will be the Shuster-Martin recital Wednesday evening and Thursday afternoon, and the Business Woman's club minstrel. But anyway, who isn't glad it's spring?

The Woman's Home Missionary
society of Trinity Methodist church
will hold one of the most delightful
meetings of the year Wednesday
evening at 7.30 o'clock, at the church. The time has been changed
from afternoon to evening so that
four teachers in the public schools,
who are hostesses, may be present.

Mrs. Minnie Curless, Misses Lettie
Reed, Lillian Radabaugh and Wessie Baker will serve as hostesses. The lection topic will be "Home Missions
An Integrating Force." Devotions
will be conducted by Mrs. J. B.
Haines. Miss Barrington will favor
with a piano number and Trinity
Ladies' quartette, consisting of Mrs.
R. D. Kahle, Mrs. J. H. Baker, Mrs.
R. H. Ebersole and Mrs. Charles A.
Black, will sing.

A pretty feature of the program
will be the rose drill to be conducted by the children making up the Home Guards, the youngest department of Home Mission Workers in the church.

Mrs. Ross E. Mullen, chair-woman, assisted by Mrs. Edward Crisley,
and Mrs. H. D. Austin and the women of Mrs. Mullen's division, will serve refreshments. Not only members of the society, but every woman
interested in home mission work in the city, is invited to be present.
Husbands may also attend.

Complimenting Mrs. A. T. Thorne,
of Mansfield, guest of Mrs. Marshall
S. Thompson entertained yesterday
with a luncheon bridge at the Lima club. Yellow and pink were carried throughout the decorations, adding
their strongest note in the large
bowl of yellow roses and pink
sweet peas which centered the luncheon table. Guests were Mrs. C. F.
Lutkin, Mrs. J. B. Vall, Mrs. George
Carter, Mrs. Frank M. Bell, Mrs.
J. O. Ohler, Mrs. C. H. Clark, Mrs.
O. B. Selfridge, Mrs. W. L. Russell,
Mrs. M. S. Thompson, Mrs. Thorne
and the hostess.

Members of the Missionary society
of the Zion Evangelical Lutheran church were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ira Klingler, of North Baxter street. Four new members were taken in namely,
Mrs. Schuster, Mrs. Newell and Mrs.
Roth. The real event of the meeting
was the telling in verse of the ways
and means the members used to make a dollar for the benefit of the society. The result of their efforts
was many humorous poems and $46.46. Committees in charge of the entertainment and program were headed by Mrs. Klingler, Mrs. Alva Spenser and Mrs. Ephraim Ridenour.
The next meeting of the society will be in a month at the home of Mrs.
Irvin Ridenour.

Members of the Chautauque club
entertained this afternoon with a reception at the home of Miss Nettie Snook on West North street. Members of the club and the federation
officers were in the receiving line.
A musical program added much to
the enjoyment of the afternoon
which was open from 2 until 5
o'clock. A silver offering was taken for the benefit of the Loan Scholarship.

Miss Grace Moore, of West High
street, will open her home Friday
night for the reception to be given by the members of the N. B. O. O.
club to their many friends. Committees for the evening are as follows. Refreshment committee, Miss Gall, chairman, Mrs. Lura Bateson,
Miss Marguerite Bond and Miss Lura
Bateson. Decoration committee
will be headed by Miss Grace Moore,
Miss Esther Roberts and Miss Kathleen Neff. Miss Alice Ogilvie is chairman of the program committee
and will be assisted by Miss Helen Winemiller and Miss Edith Jones.

Officers of the club will be in the receiving line, they are: Miss Alice Hoover, president, Miss Mabel May,
vice president, Miss Lura Bateson,
secretary, and Miss Marguerite Moyer, treasurer.

ing in Beechwood School for Girls,
Philadelphia, the past year has improved her spare time taking a special musical course in the "Combs

and is one of the graduates in the class of 1916. Commencement exercises are held in the Academy of Music, Broad and Locust streets,
Wednesday evening, May 10, at 8 o'clock. The music for the occasion
is furnished by Conservatory Symphony Orchestra, No. 1, consisting of 90 pieces.

All those who are members of the Shakespeare Study club will have the pleasure of luncheon at the Elks'
Home Thursday noon with Mrs.
Shuster-Martin of Cincinnati, who will come here to give a recital Wednesday evening and Thursday afternoon.

Plans for reserving accommodations were discussed last night at the home of Mrs. George Vicary by the delegates of the federated clubs
of this city who are planning to attend the bi-annual convention at
New York City the latter part of this month.

Lima Day Nursery board decided
at a special meeting yesterday to give a dance and card party the early part of June at Memorial hall for the benefit of the Nursery. Details of the affair will be decided upon at a later meeting.

Housekeeping With One Maid.
With the aid of one maid, in a household numbering four or five
members living in a six or eight
room house, it is astonishing, says
the Christian Science Monitor, what may be achieved in the way of home
comfort and order if the mistress is a good manager. Half the secret is in having a good system, so that the
machinery runs as smoothly as possible. System and regularity are big features in successful housekeeping.
There is also wisdom and economy
in having a few things done outside
to save the maid's time.

For instance, have a man come in
once a week to clean all the rugs,
brasses and windows and polish the hardwood floors. It also will save money to hire a good strong woman
one day a month to wash the heavy
things, such as curtains, spreads,
blankets or other heavy extras. She may also be employed to do any
cleaning needed in cellar or attic.
The rough work of the house is thus disposed of without disturbing the regularity of the household machinery.

The wise housewife will not stint
herself in buying modern appliances
to lighten the work wherever possible, and there are many of these
today on the market the most important ones being equal to an advanced pair of hands in the way of efficient help. Some women think it is best not only to send shirts, collars and cuffs but all the bedding to
the laundry, thus leaving only the family wash and the table linen for the maid to do. Others have a wash-
woman come in half a day to help
with the wash and half a day to help with the ironing. Others invest in an electric washing machine
that works while the maid attends
to her early morning duties, then
when she is ready to look after it,
the wash is done ready to use
starch and hang up.

Neat gingham house dresses and
aprons for morning wear and back
dresses with white aprons for afternoons are now the correct things in
maids' uniforms in the United States.
The aprons, caps, collars and cuffs
are furnished by the mistress, and in many cases the dress of black material also. One wise woman had a good pattern and she herself cut
the material, the maid basted it,
she fitted it and then she let the girl
make it. If the maid stood over four months, the dress was hers, if she
left before that time, it was kept for her successor.

A work schedule after this fashion works out well, if it is used conscientiously. Monday's washing with the getting of breakfast, takes up
the early part of the day with

a great help if the mistress will wash the breakfast dishes, so as to let the maid have all the time pos-

Tuesday's ironing occupies most of the day, with the meals to get and serve. Wednesday brings the cleaning of silver, windows, brasses and odd jobs to be done. Thursday is upstairs cleaning day and in the af-

the mistress is willing to get the din-

downstairs cleaning is to be done,

MRS.
EVA LEONARD

The Elbow Lane No Time In Following Up the Clue.

"NELL," called Olive Ellison
from the machine as her
friend came to the door
in answer to the doctor's summons.
"Get on your wraps and come along."

I believe we have
a clue to the
whereabouts of the baby at last. I want to tell you
about it."

In a very short
time Nell and
little Hal were
seated in the automobile and they
were speeding
down the road.

"Tell me all
about it," Nell
exclaimed, looking forward eagerly.

"About half an hour ago," began Olive, "Mr. Farrer, a farmer who lives about five miles from here,
rang the doorbell. He asked if I was Mrs. Ellison and said that he had read of our trouble in the paper,
and had at once decided to come
and tell us of a strange experience
he had had the very day the baby
was stolen. He overtook a woman
walking and carrying a baby, when
he was a mile from the cross roads
where we found the buggy."

"Which way were they going?"
asked Nell.

"Toward Judson's corners. She got out there and started east."

"How did she account for the fact that she was walking and carrying a heavy baby on a hot day like that?"
asked Nell.

"She did not account for it. He could not get her to say anything
except that she did not live in these parts."

"How long ago was this Mr. Farrer at your house?" continued Nell.

"Oh, not more than half an hour.
Gaylord came about fifteen minutes
after he left and you can imagine it
did not take long for us to get started on our search."

"Well, there is one thing, if a woman has started out with a heavy
baby on foot, she cannot be very far off," comforted Nell.

"That is what I told Olive." The doctor turned toward them as he spoke. "Yes, but it makes the affair all the more mysterious. What woman in her senses would plan to walk and carry a heavy child? Why
did not she leave it in the buggy?"

There was a worried wrinkle between Olive's eyes as she spoke.

"Oh, she evidently planned on getting rides," remarked the doctor.
"She knew that a thorough search
would be made all over the adjacent
roads and that there was no chance of getting away with a buggy. She knew she would be able to get rides
to help herself along and planned on
it."

"Who could do such a thing?"
asked Olive sadly. There was no answer from either of her companions.

"I think this is Judson's corners
ahead here. You say the man saw her going east from there?" asked
the doctor.

"Yes, he looked back as he drove
off, and she was walking slowly down
the road," replied Olive. The machine turned in the direction indicated.

"How are you going to proceed
with the search?" asked Nell.

"I shall comb this district with a fine toothed comb," he announced.
"I shall call at every house and question every person I meet. Somebody would surely see her in the course
of the afternoon, and she would have
to stop for food and shelter by night.
It seems to me we stand a very good chance of finding the woman.

Whether she had our baby or not remains to be seen." The doctor's tone was cheerful. It was such a relief to have something definite to do to prosecute the search. He had spent the best part of two days in traveling aimlessly about, trying to light on some clue.

Clark will entertain the members of her card club at her home on Fulton
street, Tuesday. On Wednesday, Mrs. Ralph Lippincott will have luncheon guests informally at the Woman's Building, complimenting
Mrs. Moke.

"Mrs. Angus McMahon and Mrs.
George C. Morrison will entertain a small company of friends at a bridge luncheon today at the Woman's Building, complimenting Mrs.
Frank Clark's sister, Mrs. Frank Moke of Lima.

"A basket of sweet peas in two
shades of rose will grace the table
at which will be seated Mrs. Moke,
Mrs. Clark, Mrs. A. G. H. Jeannsen,
Mrs. B. O. Gamble, Mrs. Charles
McHenry, Mrs. Harry Melling, Mrs.
Walter B. Snyder and the hostess."

Saturday, Miss L. B. Wilson will entertain with luncheon at the invitees club in honor of Mrs.

ON THE LETTERS I RECEIVE

Copyright 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

THIS paragraph must be an apology to the few who have written twice telling me
their last letter. Sometimes letters
miscarry through the mail and
many times they are misaddressed,
but one of the duties of my day is
to see that all my correspondence is
assorted and answered as soon as it
is possible, either through the
papers or through the personal mail.

Last week I wrote upon letters
from the lovers, but there are many other interesting letters besides those, letters which amuse or touch me deeply.

An old man writes to know if his little granddaughter, of whom he gave a long description, could by any chance have come to my studio.

"Her mother died when she was only a little baby, and I tried to bring her up so she would be a nice,
sensible girl," is written in a feeble
handwriting which is dim and shaky.

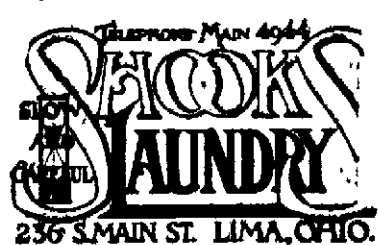

"Milly was a good girl, too, and
the people in the town thought a lot of her. There never used to be much excitement here until the
theatre was built and traveling companies came to put on their performances. Milly seemed to be carried away with them actors and actresses,
and one day she told me she had
been thinking of going on the stage.
I never scolded her—honest, Miss Pickford, I didn't—but I begged her
to be a good girl and mind what trouble she'd be getting into that might keep her from marrying one
of the nice boys of the town and
growing up to be a fine, sensible
woman."

"Milly seemed to take my words
to heart, and nothing more was said
until one day she ran away and left
a letter telling me not to worry—
she was going to New York, and
when she was famous, she'd come back to town and show the homefolks up. That's two years ago, and

for Medium and Stout Figures
May be Found—at Bluem's

A Medium or Full Figure, seeking to mould
the waist-line shown in the Spring fashions, will find corsets of ordinary strength absolutely in-

quickly. And if a fleshy abdomen must be reduced, the task is hopeless without a corset
made especially for the purpose.

Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets are made for just such figures and just such purposes. They have the latest figure lines and no amount of
wearing pressure can change them.

The change will be yours when these extra
strong corsets with the well known Rengo Belt
reducing feature have imparted to your figure
every bit of the mould of present fashion which they possess.

Tonnline Is Beauty Aid, Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest to Women.

As health is a first aid to beauty this story, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonline," said Mildred Louise.

"I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly—pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness.

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women, who said, 'Take tonline.'"

"Not long after I started the tonline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest way to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face.

"What tonline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonline publicly."

Tonline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the blood—restores proper action. Tonline is being explained daily to many people at Butler's Drug Store, and Thompson's Drug Store.

Notice:—As tonline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight. It is for pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.—50c BOX FREE—

Spring Fever?

This is the time of year to look out for trouble! We feel weak—our blood seems hot—no appetite. It's time to clean house! This is when the blood is clogged and we suffer from what is commonly called a cold.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies the blood and entirely eradicates the poisons that breed and feed disease. Pure blood is essential to good health. The weak, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people experience is commonly the effect of impure blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery not only cleanses the blood of impurities, but it increases the activity of the blood-making glands, and it enriches the body with an abundant supply of pure, rich blood.

Take it as directed and it will search out impure and poisonous matter in the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys and drive it from the system through the natural channels. The bad blood is driven out! It will furnish you with rich, pure blood full of vital force—the kind that increases energy and ambition, that rejuvenates the entire body.

What Our Neighbors Say?

Dayton, Ohio.—"I have used 'Golden Medical Discovery' for a spring tonic and found it just what I needed. It proved a blood purifier and I was well satisfied and was glad I used it. It is a fine medicine and I am glad to recommend it."—Mrs. MARY SCHUMACHER, 431 Oak Street, Dayton, Ohio.

IF KIDNEYS ACH BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and clogged. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach grows, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scales and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium and has been used for generations to cleanse and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it is no longer irritating, thus ending bladder troubles.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful, effervescent table-water drink.

P. O. R.—We spent many days at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco, and I will never forget how marvelous it was. The lighting of the fair grounds at night made it seem like a fairy kingdom or an illustrated page from "Arabian Nights."

F. D.—If your skin is dry, why don't you use plenty of cold cream, massaging until the cuticle is soft? Try using olive oil on your scalp before shampooing your hair.

S. A.—If you are so madly in love with your fiance, I should not think you would be happy quarreling with him as much as you say you do. I do not think it is very womanly to slap a man's face for no serious reason, and if you are truly sorry it is you who should apologize.

Arthur V.—Probably the scar on your face can be hidden by a thick coating of grease paint. It is seldom any such mark shows on the screen if the makeup is put on properly.

Ambitious—A sixteen-page synopsis is a little bit long. The scenario editors do not want flowery language, they want building up of scenes in a round, full plot. Have it typewritten.

CLEO RIDGELY, LASKY-PARAMOUNT STAR, ON TOP OF STAGE COACH AFTER STOPPING RUN-AWAY. FOUR-IN-HAND, AT RISK OF HER LIFE.

Venus achieved fame because of her exquisite beauty; Athens because she was wise, and Diana because she was shy. None of these, according to the present day standards of motion picture producers, would qualify as a great screen star, unless to the well known charms of each some other great claim were added. Cleo Ridgely declares that it is defiance of death which will more surely than any other virtue place a young woman among the ranks of the motion picture stars.

To a considerable degree Miss Ridgely possesses in combination some of the qualities of Venus, Athena and Diana. She is pretty, wise and shy. But these alone will bring her little in this world, she says. Therefore, when she decided some years ago to become a motion picture star she started on the general theory that the public never was so interested in anything as in a narrow escape from death. For several years she has been dodging the Big Scythe.

Miss Ridgely is one of the most expert horse-women in the country. The chances are that when you, some years ago, saw a motion picture of a woman falling down a precipice on the back of a horse, that woman was Cleo Ridgely. She is now a star of the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company and her next photoplay entitled "The Love Mask," which will be shown in Paramount theatres, and in which she co-stars with the handsome Wallace Reid, will reveal Miss Ridgely in a new feat of daring. In this picture she is seen on the top of a four-in-hand coach successfully stopping an enraged four-in-hand. This is said to be one of the most thrilling scenes ever pictured in a photoplay.

Pictographs, the delightful "screen magazine" are also on the program.

On Sunday and Monday the incomparable Mary Pickford comes back to the Faurot in her latest screen success, "The Eternal Grind." It seems almost unbelievable that this great star can go on eclipsing her previous performances, but in this last vehicle, according to the critics of the cities where the picture has so far been shown, that is just what Miss Pickford has done. There seems to be no bounds to her exquisite art and she comes by her title of the greatest film actress in the world honestly. In "The Eternal Grind" Miss Pickford is a very mature young lady—prematurely ripened by hard work in a factory—whose indomitable will, fearlessness, resolution, ingenuity and forceful personality compel our admiration as well as our sympathy. The program also contains new Bray cartoons, "The Police Dog Turns Nurse," that are ingenious and funny.

Following their joint success in "The Golden Chance," Cleo Ridgely and Wallace Reid will be seen at the Faurot on Tuesday and Wednesday in "The Love Mask," a gripping western drama written especially for them by Cecil B. DeMille and Jeanie MacPherson. The clever stars are both provided with roles different from anything in which they have yet appeared and the thrilling play is quite novel in construction. The settings are said to be both beautiful and unusual and a typical Lasky cast is seen in their support. New Burton Holmes Travel pictures are also on the program. This week the intrepid globe trotter takes you up the Pasig river, the Thames of the Philippines.

"Lovely Mary" is the entirely appropriate title of the new Metro production in which Mary Miles Minter will be seen at the Faurot on Thursday and Friday. "Lovely" is the most expressive adjective that has yet been applied to this captivating 110 pounds of sunshine and she is said to be lovely and lovable all through this new picture. Moreover, she has a good story behind her. It is melodramatic, along the regular lines, but has enough of a new touch, and enough new features to keep the interest well above the normal level. Striking scenes, made in Florida, where the scene of the story is laid, and views which are true to type in the life of a small community, are also an asset. The cast in her support will include Thomas Carrigan, Frank De Vernon, Russell Simpson, Schutler Ladd, Fred Tidmarsh, Myra Brooks and Harry Blakemore. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew will be on the program also, appearing in another clever little comedy, "System is Everything."

For Saturday next the Faurot will bring back that superb emotional star, Pauline Frederick, who will be seen in a return engagement of her great success, "Sold." Miss Frederick's appearance in this striking photoplay was one of the big events of last summer and many requests have come to the Faurot for a return engagement. The feature will be accompanied by new Paramount Pictographs.

STAR THEATRE. "The Leap," a two-part 101 Bison Western thriller, is the principal feature of the fine new program at the Star theatre today. It is a railroad drama with many sensational scenes and incidents. Lee Hill and Rene Rogers have the leading roles. The program also contains "A Perfect Match," a Joker comedy with Gail Henry and William Franey, and the Animated Weekly, the best of all pictorial news reviews.

For Sunday the Faurot will have two popular favorites, Rupert Julian and Elsie Jane Wilson, in a Laemmle feature drama, "The Marriage of Arthur." As a contrast to its strong dramatic story a clever L-KO comedy, "Mr. Buddy Briggs, Burglar," and electrical effects are especially well shown. Gertrude Selby and Reggie Morris head a cast of fun-makers in this.

ORPHEUM. Few sweeter love stories have ever been told than that embodied in the words of that famous old song "Silver Threads Among the Gold." The drama founded on that song and with the same title, tells a story fully as endearing to every heart. "Silver Threads Among the Gold" based on that sweet old song convey the wonderful sentiment expressed by the song into spoken dramatic offering of Chet Keyes and his players to the first half of next week, starting with the opening performance Monday night at 8:15, prompt.

"Silver Threads Among the Gold" will no doubt prove to be one of the most popular and best liked play presented by Mr. Keyes and his players. Like the song, from which the play was taken, it will live forever. It is a clever story depicting life in the far west when the fold fever, and gambling was at its height. The first two acts show this life in a very clever manner and the special scenes and electrical effects are especially pleasing. The last two acts change to another country where a beautiful love story terminates as all good love stories do.

Probably no song ever written sprung and lasted in public favor like that sweet old melody "Silver Threads Among the Gold." When the words of the song were taken for the basis on which to build a drama, much skepticism was voiced as to whether the dramatist could convey the wonderful sentiment expressed by the song into spoken words. But it was done. Anyone who doubts this statement should visit the Orpheum the first half of next week while Chet Keyes and his players are presenting this widely talked-of play.

"Silver Threads Among the Gold" will be offered at the Orpheum, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, with but one matinee, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. As a special feature Monday night, May 8th, after the regular

Barney Oldfield Has Number One In Driver' List

INDIANAPOLIS, May 6.—The official entry list for the sixth international Sweepstakes race on the Indianapolis motor speedway has just
been announced, although the entries closed at midnight, May 1st.
Several letters were in the mail by
that date, and the speedway officials waited for them to arrive.
This list shows the most formidable
array of speed talent that ever faced
a starter at Indianapolis. Only one prominent driver is missing—Ralph DePalma, who was unable to get his car rebuilt in time. There are more foreign built cars and a higher average among the ability of all
drivers and higher quality among
the field of cars, than ever before.
George M. Dickson will start these cars on their three hundred mile
chase after a fortune in prize money
at 1:30, May 30th.

won in 1912, average 78.70 miles

Big Parade Will Precede League's Grand Opening

Detailed plans for a fit celebration of the opening of the Lima Industrial League were discussed and decided on last night at a meeting of the board of directors and officers of the league. All team managers reported the fitness of their teams for the opening games on May 27.
One of the events preceding the game will be a boosters' parade in which all the city officials will be asked to participate. The parade,
in which all business houses and industrial concerns are welcome to join, will be headed by DuPere's
band of 16 pieces.
The parade is scheduled to leave
the Y. M. C. A. at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. City patrolmen in uniform headed by the band and followed by industrial floats, city officials in automobiles and players in uniform will march south on Elizabeth street to Spring, then east to Main and north on Main to Murphy
street park.
Before the opening of the contest,
Mayor Simpson will make an address and officially open the season
of the league by throwing the first ball across the plate. Several other city officials will make addresses
conveying to fans the importance of the success of the organization.

Mansfield Plays Independents On Sunday, May 14

Arrangements for the opening of the base ball season by the Lima Independent team, Sunday, May 14,
are rapidly being completed. The opponents of the local club on this day will be Mansfield.
If Manager Holleran is able to make the necessary arrangements
the first game of the season of the local team will be marked by the usual ceremonies celebrating such an event. Owing to the fact that the opening date falls on Sunday,
the celebration will likely consist of
several short addresses by city officials.
From the list of bookings for the first part of the season, it is evident
that local fans will be given a good
run for their money, as such teams
as Mansfield, Springfield, Payne, Columbus, Sidney and the Prefecture
Spring team, of Cleveland, will play
here.

Cleveland Wins Game In Sixth By Bunched Hits

CHICAGO, May 6.—A batting rally in the sixth inning started by John Graney, allowed Cleveland to win
yesterday's game from Chicago 3 to 2.
When Graney came to bat in the sixth, after one man had been retired Catcher Schalk called the um-pire's attention to the fact that Graney was using a flat bat. The umpire ordered him to change his club and when he returned to the plate, he singled. Turner and Speaker followed with safe drives and
after Roth's retirement, Gandil hit safely. This bombardment resulted in three runs. Benz replaced Russell
and held the visitors safe thereafter.

MARKETS

WALL ST. IS QUICK
IN ITS RECOVERY

NEW YORK, May 6.—Today's strong and exceedingly active market doubtless had its basis in an increasing conviction that the crisis with Germany had passed. Buying was of a free and confident character, although representative stocks were again subordinated to the demand for specialties. Mercantile Marine and United Fruit, as well as the oils, motors and coppers, were most conspicuous in the dealings, together with such shares as Crucible and Lackawanna Steels, American Can, American Locomotive and Westinghouse. Gains in these various issues ranged from 2 to 5 points. Petroleum making an extreme gain of over six points. The closing was strong. Bonds were firm.

BUSINESS ACTIVITY
WELL SUSTAINED

Dun's Review Shows Manufacturers Behind in Orders.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Dun's Review in its issue today has this to say regarding trade conditions:

Various restraining influences, notably the unsettled state of labor, operate to limit business in some directions. Apart from the lines affected activities are remarkably well sustained considering the extremely high costs, the general scarcity of raw materials and similar handicaps. Many manufacturers are months behind on shipments and endeavor to repress buying rather than encourage it. Conditions of supply and demand are not essentially different from those existing during recent weeks, in some instances purchasers are increasingly importunate and in others there is less pressure of new business, but in about all cases cumulative requirements are still in excess of available stocks. Wherever possible, overtime continues in force and all equipment is utilized, yet the phenomenal records of production are maintained with difficulty and the iron furnaces are under great strain to keep the output near the 40,000,000-ton rate. Under skilled management, the railroad freight congestion has been reduced and there is less complaint of delayed deliveries on this account, but the obstacles in overseas commerce are intensified and exports, though unparalleled, would be even larger if shipping facilities were adequate. In the mercantile field dealings are unprecedented in the aggregate and if the best results have not been attained in some quarters it is only because of backward weather. Where temperatures have become more normal retail distribution has made immediate response and, in nearly all sections wholesale buying for fall is of noteworthy dimensions. The enormous volume of commercial and industrial transactions is strikingly reflected in the returns of bank clearings which in April surpassed all previous totals for the period, the expansion being country-wide. All important statistical barometers present similar characteristics. Leading transporting systems continue to report great augmentation of revenues, the business mortality steadily diminishes, though new enterprises constantly increase, and building operations are on a progressively rising scale, in spite of the high costs of materials.

A Popular Type of a Two Story Residence

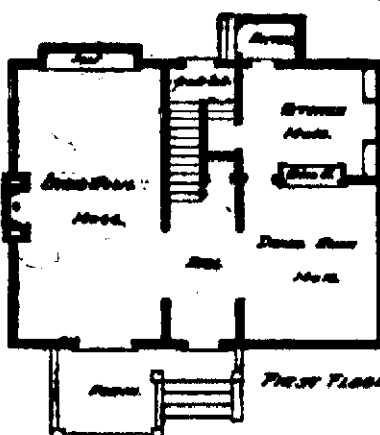

House Plan No. 2

This residence is entirely new and original in design, the exterior being composed of several very simple element siding shingles and a touch of stucco between gables combined in such manner that an unusually effective appearance is obtained at an exceedingly low cost.

As will be seen from the floor plans, the interior is conveniently arranged, center hall leading to living and dining room through six-foot eared openings; note the grade entrance to cellar and kitchen, making a convenient combination for the main stairway.

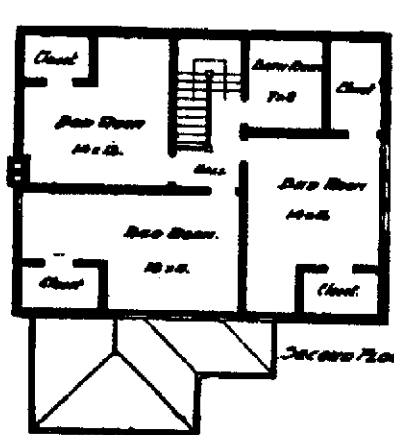

Three well ventilated bed rooms, with ample closet space and a tile floor bath room, all finished in white enamel with mahogany finished doors give a pleasant effect that harmonize with any kind of furniture.

The down stairs, except the kitchen which is of yellow pine natural finish and maple floor, will be treated of red oak floors and finish.

An unusual departure is the cement paving of the porch floor and the concrete steps leading to same.

The approximate cost of this building will be about $4500.
